Partnerships for Progress: Collaboration between the Workforce System and Higher Ed

Improving collaboration between workforce boards and institutions of higher education could help better serve those adults who enter the workforce system with a significant number of college credits but no degree. This webinar will explore specific strategies that both two- and four-year institutions, as well as policymakers, can pursue to foster better communication and collaboration ultimately resulting in increased credential completion by adults who enter the workforce training system.

Speakers:

Robyn Minton, vice president of operations, The Center of Workforce Innovations, Indiana

Eddie Foreman, ceo, Central Oklahoma Workforce Investment Board (COWIB), Oklahoma

John Metcalf, National Association of Workforce Boards

Heather A. McKay, director, Education and Employment Research Center, Rutgers University

3.40 – 4.00 pm

Questions and Discussion
